9:00 A.M.

TODAY'S SPEAKERS

ROLLIN BAUGH

BAUGH INTERNATIONAL

A native of Pasadena, Baugh is a graduate of USC. He opened his brokerage firm in 1968 specializing in the sale of Thoroughbred racing and breeding stock both privately and at public auctions. Other services include insurance, appraisals, syndication, stallion seasons and shares, and mating recommendations. He has sold more than 225 stakes winners for an international client list and has handled major auction dispersals for the estate of Fletcher Jones, George A. Pope, John J. Elmore and others. Baugh is a member of the Jockey Club and a director of the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club.

JEFF LIFSON

WEST POINT THOROUGHBREDS

Lifson is Executive Vice President of Mid-West Operations for West Point Thoroughbreds. A native of Mount Vernon, Iowa, he has a BA in History from Williams College and an MSJ from Northwestern University. Lifson says that the West Point clients are what makes his job worthwhile. His goal is to help clients achieve the fullest experience possible - by spending time with them on the phone, at sales, and during training. He adds that, in time, many of his clients have become great friends.

PETER MILLER

TRAINER

Miller has won 7 training titles at Del Mar, including 2020. He also holds 6 training titles at Santa Anita and 2 at Los Alamitos. He is based at San Luis Rey Downs and races primarily on the Southern California circuit, running everything from graded stakes performers to claiming horses. Miller's parents competed as Winning Ways Stable, and he has been going to the racetrack since he was 8 years old. He began his career in racing working for such notable trainers as Charlie Whittingham, Mike Mitchell, and Don Warren. His first Grade 1 win came with the filly Set Play in the 2007 Del Mar Debutante. He has since trained many graded stakes winners, including Breeders' Cup champions Roy H., Stormy Liberal, and Belvoir Bay.

GARY YOUNG

BLOODSTOCK AGENT

Young is a highly respected private clocker and bloodstock agent. A native of Lockport, IL, he is a lifelong racing fan who began attending the races at Arlington Park with his parents at age 5. He began hotwalking and grooming horses for the prominent Winick stable at Calder Racecourse at the age of 17. A year later he began watching and clocking horses, and he has been doing it ever since. He relocated from Florida to California in the early 1980s and quickly became widely known and respected for his opinion on racehorses. He selected 1993 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Champion Brocco for Albert and Dana Broccoli, and throughout his career he has recommended three Breeders' Cups and 25 Grade 1 winners

MODERATOR

TODD SCHRUPP

RACING ANALYST, TVG

A native of Minnesota, Schrupp's lifelong love of horse racing began during summer visits to Del Mar with his father. While studying at the University of Minnesota, he worked in the marketing department at Canterbury Downs and later became in-house analyst-handicapper and backup track announcer. He also worked at Calder Race Course before landing a job in 1999 as one of the first on-air people on TVG.
